

October 18, 2022

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT IHA:
Kathleen Kirvin
518.348-7457

United Iroquois Shared Services Announces New Board Members and Names New Board Leadership

New board to bring strong leadership and decades of diverse entrepreneurial experience to further advance its business model with a greater focus on healthcare.

ALBANY, NY – United Iroquois Shared Services, Inc. (UISS) today announced the formation of a new board and board chair who will each help support the for-profit's work to help members maximize savings, reduce costs, and improve outcomes through the power of group purchasing.

"We're excited to announce this new board with members who will bring diverse expertise and insight to our work," said UISS Executive Director Donna Gammarato. "We have worked diligently to ensure the UISS board and leadership represent a variety of experts from hospitals, nursing and rehabilitation centers, and the healthcare industry."

UISS chose Eric Campbell, Chief Financial Officer for the Oswego Health system, as its board chair. He has served as the CFO at Oswego Health since 2016, where he's responsible for the oversight of financial reporting, regulatory reporting, financial analysis, budget, materials management, revenue cycle, health information management and compliance.

"I am delighted to welcome such a strong group of board members, and I look forward to serving with each of them in the coming year," said Gary J. Fitzgerald, President and CEO Iroquois Healthcare Alliance and United Iroquois Shared Services. "I'm also very pleased that Eric Campbell will lead UISS in his new role as board chair. Eric has demonstrated exceptional commitment to advancing the UISS mission, and we're looking forward to his leadership."

The new board members began their two-year terms with UISS effective September 21, 2022 and can serve a maximum of two terms. The new board members are:

- Gary Fitzgerald, CEO & President, IHA & UISS
- Maxine Briggs, Vice President of Finance & Chief Financial Officer, Samaritan Medical Center
- Eric Campbell, Chief Financial Officer, Oswego Medical Center
- Frank Commisso, Director of Fiscal Operations, Shaker Place Rehabilitation and Nursing Home
- Dewey Rowlands, Chief Financial Officer, Rome Health
- John Strong, Chief Consulting Officer, Access Strategy

About United Iroquois Shared Services, Inc.: United Iroquois Shared Services (UISS) is a regional group purchasing organization representing the interests of acute, non-acute and non-healthcare facilities. UISS combines shared services and consulting activities concentrated on reducing operating costs and promoting performance improvement for more than 900 health care and non-health care members. UISS represents the for-profit division of the Iroquois Healthcare Association with more than 45 years of experience in providing cost-saving initiatives, educational opportunities, and business solutions. With an office located in Clifton Park, NY, we offer local, dedicated customer service to meet the changing needs of our members.

Through partnerships with PREMIER, Inc. and ACURITY, Inc., UISS is able to offer the most competitive, diverse portfolio of contracts through the use of tailored negotiating strategies, national flexibility, regional volume aggregation, and local empowerment. On average, we are able to save members 7% – 15% on products and services.

About the Iroquois Healthcare Association: IHA is a regional healthcare trade organization representing more than 50 hospitals and health systems, spanning over 28,000 square miles, across 32 counties of Upstate New York. IHA is the leading resource for facilities and professionals bringing quality health care to the region. IHA represents the unique needs of rural, small community safety-net providers to large, academic medical centers in Upstate New York's urban areas through advocacy, education and information, cost-savings initiatives and innovative business solutions.